

Vermont History Day Educator Workshop

- How do students benefit from participating in Vermont History Day?
- Does the program work in a variety of classes or afterschool programs?
(It's more than just Vermont history!)
- How can History Day be part of personalized learning?
- Can students demonstrate proficiency through participation in History Day?
- How can you help students get started with this year's theme?
- Where can students find primary sources for their projects?

Find answers to these and other questions at a Vermont History Day workshop.
Tuesday, October 18, 2016 - 9:00-3:00 at the Vermont History Museum, Montpelier

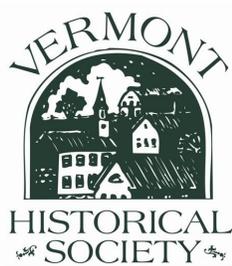

This in-depth workshop will examine the different options for History Day projects and demonstrate ways to incorporate the program into your classroom or school. New and experienced History Day educators are welcome to attend.

Special presentations by:

Keith Harrington, NHD Behring Teacher Ambassador and experienced History Day teacher and coach from Poultney Elementary School

Terry Buehner, experienced History Day teacher from Burlington High School (retired)

Pre-registration required. $40.00 registration fee includes lunch and certificate for 6 hours of professional development.
