Becoming a State Town History

Pretend it is the year 1800. Write the history of your group's town from its beginning until Vermont became the 14th state. Include details about getting the land and dividing the land. Also tell the story of how Vermont became a state.