

Loading corn on a farm near Sheldon, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017795975/>)

Farmers bring their cans of milk to the crossroads early every morning, where they are picked up by large cooperative farmers trucks. Woodstock, Vermont, by Marion Post Wolcott, March 1940 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017802487/>)

French-Canadian farmers who are gathering corn on a farm near Sheldon, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796000/>)

Bringing the cows in for the afternoon milking on a farm near Enosburg Falls, Vermont by Jack Delano, September 1941

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796428/>)

Dicky Gaynor feeding the chickens on their farm near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, September 1941

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796138/>)

Loading hay on a farm near Rutland, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017795770/>)

Mrs. W. Gaynor canning tomatoes on their farm near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796072/>)

William Gaynor, FSA (Farm Security Administration) dairy farmer, picking up potatoes on his farm near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, September 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017750556/>)

East Montpelier, Vermont. Milking time on Charles Ormsbee's farm. He and his son Conrad, age eleven, are using automatic milkers. Mr. Ormsbee agreed to increase his Jersey herd from twenty-five to thirty milkers, to aid in the Food for Freedom program by Fritz Henle, July 1942 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017866496/>)

Gathering hay near Brandon, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017795867/>)

Untitled photo, possibly related to: Bob McNally with one of the horses, Kirby, Vermont] by Arthur Rothstein, September 1937
(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017722732/>)

Bottling milk on the McNally farm. Kirby, Vermont by Arthur Rothstein, September 1937

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017776141/>)

FSA (Farm Security Administration) client with canned goods. Farm, Bradford, Vermont, Orange County by Lee Russell, October 1939 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017784389/>)

Cutting hay, Windsor County, Vermont by Arthur Rothstein, September 1937 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017722644/>)

Mr. Gilbert and hired man hauling wood for winter fuel. Woodstock, Vermont] by Marion Post Wolcott Post , March 1939 or 1940? (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017755715/>)

Threshing. Caledonia County, Vermont by Arthur Rothstein, September 1937 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017776129/>)

Mrs. W. Gaynor preparing dinner on their farm near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, September 1941

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796122/>)

Filling a silo on a farm by Jack Delano, September 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796433/>)

Gathering corn to feed the cows on the farm of William Gaynor, FSA (Farm Security Administration) dairy farmer near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, September 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796134/>)

Walter Gaylord and son on sled with vat full of sap from sugar maple trees which is boiled down into syrup. Mad River Valley, Waitesfield, Vermont. He averages about 150 gallons of syrup annually, this year tapped only 600 out of his 1000 trees, because of unusually deep snow and late spring. He owns several farms; in this particular farm unit there are eighty acres. It has been in family for three generations. Has about thirty-five or forty head of cattle, raises poultry and potatoes by Marion Post Wolcott, April 1940? (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017756227/>)

Getting the cows into the barn to be milked, on the farm of William Gaynor, FSA (Farm Security Administration) dairy farmer near Fairfield, Vermont by Jack Delano, August 1941 (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017796086/>)

Hired man unloading hay. McNally Farm, Kirby, Vermont by Arthur Rothstein, September 1937

(<https://www.loc.gov/item/2017776128/>)

Carl Brown, eleven years old. He and his father run a farm of 160 acres, in Southern Vermont. He is overgrown, sluggish, but he said: "I'd ruther go to school." See Hine Report, Rural Child Labor, August 1915. Location: Southern Vermont, Vermont. By Lewis Hine (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2018677450/>)

Work that Educates. Twelve-year old boy tending chickens with his father, John Spargo. Bennington, Vermont, Aug. 1914.
by Lewis Hine (<https://www.loc.gov/item/2018677889/>)

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1874.

Cold.
went to school.
Father doing Chores etc.
Fred and Merrill dident work. Grandmother pering visiting at our house.

SATURDAY 17

moderately cold.
went to school. Father
doing chores in forenoon.
Father went to Plain field in the afternoon.

SUNDAY 18

mild and Pleasant
father, addie, mary, nitty
and elisha went to church.
I staid at home and did the chores. went to temperance lecture evening.
(mary, addie, lish & I)

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 1874.

thawing.
went to school. father
doing chores etc.

TUESDAY 20

Moderately cold.
went to school.
Father doing chores etc.
Lish and I carried the girls to singing school in the evening.

WEDNESDAY 21

Snowed.
went to school. Father
did chores forenoon.
he went to Barrie to Mill, afternoon. Fred and Merril chopped all day.