

WELCOME TO THE

VERMONT HISTORY MUSEUM

The award-winning Freedom and Unity exhibit presents a chronological history of the state from the first inhabitants to the present.

See the map on the next page for the locations of these exhibit highlights.

1

Recreated Abenaki Wigwam, 1650s

2

General Store, 1820s

3

LOCAL HISTORY GALLERY
 Changing exhibits curated by Local Historical Societies and Museums.

4

Civil War Medicine Case, 1860s

5

Civilian Conservation Corps Footlocker, 1930s

FREEDOM AND UNITY

Important Information

ACCESSIBILITY

The museum is wheelchair accessible through the entrance on Governor Davis Avenue.

FOOD AND BEVERAGES

Visitors are welcome to eat on the front porch or in the Snelling Room when it is available.

PHOTOS AND VIDEOS

Visitors may take photos and videos in the museum for personal use only.

SERVICE ANIMALS

Trained service animals are welcome in the museum.

TOUR GROUPS AND STUDENT GROUPS

Group visits should be scheduled in advance. Please see vermonthistory.org/museum or call (802) 828-2291 for more information.

MUSEUM STORE

Shop for books or Vermont products at the museum. Visit our online store at vermonthistory.org/shop.

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

To join, visit vermonthistory.org or call (802) 479-8500.

Vermont History Museum

109 State St. Montpelier, VT
 (802) 828-2291
info@vermonthistory.org

Hours

Tuesday-Saturday, 10am - 4pm

Visit our second location, the Vermont History Center in Barre, for more exhibits and the Leahy research library.

Learn more at vermonthistory.org

VERMONT HISTORY MUSEUM

Map & Visitor Guide

Governor Davis Avenue

State Street