The Law of the Hills:
A Judicial History of Vermont
by Paul S. Gillies

The first general history of the judicial branch in Vermont, from the tempestuous early days when Ethan Allen roared at the judges and mobs took over the courts through its evolution during the 19th and 20th centuries and into the 21st.

Paperback, 313 pages. 2019. $24.95

Featured VHS Publications

Almost Utopia by Rebecca Lepkoff

Photographs of native Vermonters and newcomers in the summer of 1950 in Jamaica, Vermont, just before paved roads and postwar development altered the community's character forever.
