*To those who came before us;
for those who come after.*

Preface

The Reverend Lyman Matthews' 1862 History of the Town of Cornwall, Vermont, is a lens into the early European settlement of this town and region. Major political and economic events of the day are seen in the context of their impacts on a local community.

We have expanded upon Matthews' admirable original index to include some of the many variations in the spellings of names. We have also attempted to identify, where possible, the maiden names of the women of the Town.
