Introduction

This collection includes thirty-five photograph albums (of approximately 3000 images) mostly taken by amateur photographer, William Chase Jewett (1883-1961) of Marlborough, New Hampshire, and Bellows Falls, Vermont. The collection was given to the Vermont Historical Society in 2004 (ms. acc. no. 2004.24) by George W. Jewett, the son of the photographer. It is stored in two document storage boxes (except as noted on the inventory) and consumes two linear feet of shelf space.

Biographical Sketch

William “Willie” Chase Jewett (1883-1961) was born in Marlborough, New Hampshire, on 17 November 1883. His parents, Eliza Ellen “Nellie” Chase (1856-1931) and Willie Augustus Jewett (1851-1883), had married on Thanksgiving Day in 1881. His father, Willie Jewett, came down with the mumps a couple years later in January 1883. He recovered but died after another brief illness a few months later, leaving Willie Jewett’s mother pregnant and a widow. Eliza Ellen Jewett set up a household with her stepmother, Mary Ann “Nancy” Chase, who was also a widow, and the two raised young Willie Jewett together.

Willie Jewett graduated from Marlborough High School in 1901. After graduation, he went to work at the W. L. Goodnow haberdashery store in Keene, New Hampshire. In 1907, he and several others established a similar store, Goodnow, Jewett and Pillsbury, in Bellows Falls, Vermont. After the Goodnow, Jewett and Pillsbury Store closed, Willie Jewett served for many years as financial representative and trustee of the Kurn Hattin Homes in Westminster, Vermont. He also served as a director of the Bellows Falls Trust Company and was a charter member of the local rotary club. For many years, he acted as superintendent of the Universalist Church Sunday School and was also a fifty-year member of the King Solomon Lodge of Masons. He was a member and sometime director of the Jewett Family of America Association. Throughout his years in Bellows Falls, he was active in community affairs. William Jewett died in Foxboro, Massachusetts, on 20 August 1961 and was buried in Marlborough, New Hampshire.

William Chase Jewett married Ruth Ellen Bowen (1892-1961), daughter of George Gilman Bowen and Mary Eliza Fletcher, in 1913 and their only child, George William Jewett, was born on 16 January 1919.
Scope and Content Note

This collection includes thirty-five photograph albums (approximately 3000 images) mostly taken by amateur photographer, William Chase Jewett (1883-1961) of Marlborough, New Hampshire, and Bellows Falls, Vermont. The heart of the collection is comprised of snapshots of people and events in the area around Bellows Falls, ca. 1900-1950. Other towns, including Keene and Marlborough, New Hampshire, are also represented to a lesser extent. By the time he was twenty-one years old (ca. 1904), William Chase Jewett had acquired quality photographic equipment and begun taking pictures. Whenever anything happened in town he reached for his camera and recorded it. Floods, fires, accidents, buildings, bridges, dams, railroads, snowstorms, construction, and parades all interested him. In particular, Jewett’s photos capture multiple floods in 1913, 1922, 1927, 1933 and 1936. His baby son, George W. Jewett as well as all the other children in his extended family and family events of all kinds were also photographed. Jewett took his camera on all his trips, beginning with his honeymoon to Bermuda in 1913. Most frequently documented were his travels to Plymouth, Massachusetts, and Cape Cod, where his maternal grandparents, Nathaniel Nickerson Chase and Charlotte Ransden, originated.

Also incorporated into the collection are several Bowen family albums and loose nineteenth century New Hampshire photographs from the Jewett family. These cover a wide range of Cheshire County locations and are individually described in the inventory. All albums in the collection have been kept intact, and, as far as possible, arranged in chronological order. Many of the photograph albums include dates and other identifying information provided by Willie Jewett. Eight ambrotypes, tintypes and daguerreotypes have been removed from the collection and housed separately.

For more detailed descriptions of photo albums in the collection, see the inventory.

Related Collections

Diaries of William Chase Jewett’s step-grandmother, Mary Ann Chase, came to the Vermont Historical Society with the gift of these photographs and can be found in the VHS library collections at MSA 421-423. One diary kept by Willie Jewett for the years, 1952-1956, is also included with Mary Ann Chase’s diaries.
