

Marriages by
Rev. Hezekiah Dickey
1847-1895

Transcribed by

February 2018

The following transcribed records are from a manuscript book of marriages performed by Hezekiah Felch Dickey, Minister of the Gospel. The book was presented to the Vermont Historical Society by his great-grandson, Earl H. Dickey on 17 July 1941. The book is kept in the vault at the VHS, and is catalogued under the call number AC 847374.

Every attempt has been made for a full and complete transcription of each record, except that minor corrections to spelling and punctuation have occasionally been made. Uncertain interpretations of handwriting appear in square brackets. The marriages are numbered sequentially, with no pagination of the book in which they appear.

An all-name index appears at the end.

Loose in book (apparently used by Rev. Dickey for each ceremony):

You Mr. _____ & You Miss _____

Having presented yourselves for the purpose of being joined in marriage, do each of you solemnly promise & engage that you will love, cherish and protect each other in sickness & in health & that forsaking all others you will provide for & assist each other & do for each other in all things as is commanded by the ordinance of God & required by the laws of the state so long as you both do live. If you thus promise you will join your right hands. I do now therefore by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of this state in the presence of God & these witnesses pronounce & declare you to be lawfully married husband and wife.
