We seldom think of the importance of cars in our life at Spaulding.

They affect our social life by taking us to games, dances, parties, the Lighthouse, just about everywhere.

Cars are important in our educational life by transporting 333 out of the 880 students at S.H.S. to school every day.

Cars will continue to be important in our lives by taking us on to school, to work, and to our own homes.

With these things in mind, we chose a car as the theme for "Our Echo". So let's climb aboard, warm up the engine, and start on our journey through Spaulding.

Clyde G. Fussell is the superintendent of the six elementary schools and Spaulding High School. This is Mr. Fussell's second year of work in the Barre City schools. After graduating from Middlebury with A.B. and A.M. degrees, he received his Ed. M. from the University of New Hampshire.

Mr. Frank Devine, assistant principal, graduated from U. V. M. in 1927 and has been with us since 1931. As director of guidance, he and his staff take a personal interest in the problems of each student. By determining our aptitudes and interests, they aid us in choosing future vocations.

Our principal, Mr. Frank Mayo, guides the 853 students of Spaulding. He received his B.S. Degree at the University of Massachusetts and his M.Ed. at Boston University. He reflects that, "Headlights are like the future. They point the way ahead, while back up lights are like the past. They show only what you have been over."

Patricia Londry and Virginia Calevero are kept busy in the office. They are in charge of the financial matters of the high school. Besides bookkeeping, their work includes making out tardy and absence slips. They must also keep detailed records of each student's personal interview with the guidance counselors.

Spaulding offers four curricula: commercial, industrial, academic, and college preparatory, with excellent teachers to train the students in each course. A staff of guidance counselors, directed by Mr. Frank Devine, interviews each student and aids in planning high school and future college courses.

Some students enter high school with hopes of further education after graduation. For them, Spaulding offers the college preparatory curriculum. Included in this course are electives in science, history, mathematics, and languages, all of which are required for college entrance.

The academic course allows more electives than the other three. These students have the opportunity of selecting any of the college prep courses plus home economics, trade, and commercial electives. Four years of English and two of physical education are required of all pupils.

The commercial department develops the business ability of the student, preparing him for a career immediately following high school. There are courses in both office work and sales techniques. The latter includes a part-time job which gives the student a chance to apply what he has learned.

For those interested in mechanics, electricity, drafting, and woodworking, the trade school provides an opportunity for acquiring practical experience. The commercial department develops the business ability of the student, preparing him for a career immediately following high school.

Boys interested in industrial arts attend three periods at Spaulding each day and then go up on the hill. Here they have a chance to put their knowledge to work in classes in mechanics, electricity, drafting, and woodworking. The trade school provides a great opportunity for acquiring practical experience.

Seniors

On September 19, 1950, the Class of 1954 entered Spaulding as green and scared as any Freshman class could be. However, after a few weeks we were adjusted to our new home.

The annual Freshman Reception was held on September 22 at the Barre Auditorium with music by the Ambassadors. The dance, which was attended by two hundred Freshmen, started at 8:30 and lasted until 11:00.

We showed good judgment as Freshmen when we elected Bob Blow, President; Sandra Simpson, Vice-President; Allan Eisenwinter, Secretary; and Richard Rossi, Treasurer.

Chosen for J.V. cheerleaders were Elaine Gilbert, Margaret Sandison, Irene Fontana, Ellie Henkel, and Marlynn Giacherio. These girls showed great school spirit as they led the Spaulding J.V. team to many victories. Representing the Freshman class on the J.V. team were Bob Ford, Bob Blow, and Ray Brassard.

"Rich-Man-Poor-Man" was our class play which centered around a thrift shop and starred Sandra Simpson as Emma and Dan Yett as Peter. Also in the cast were Jean Abbiati, Jill Morgan, Carole Rizzi, Lois Montague, Marcia Legru, Margaret Sandison, Faralie Billi, Norine Atherton, Anita Cassani, and Charles Belknap. Stage manager was Winnifred Hill, and Charlyne Dean was her assistant.

Our Spaulding basketball team, winning the Northern League and State Championship, traveled to Boston where we were defeated.

250 'wise fools' return

We moved with ease from the old to the new Lighthouse.

A few of our Sophomore Hop Committee working on our first big dance.

As sophomores we returned to Spaulding happy to be back. We now knew our way around and had to smile to see the Freshmen lost and bewildered.

We held our first school dance as a class on October 11, 1951. It was put on by our committee of Edith Lawson, Doug Burnham, Jim Corologos, Bob French, Dan Hooker, Silvio Nativi, Jean Abbiati, Elaine Gilbert, Dave Biggs, Marcia Lawson, Jill Morgan, and Bob Tomasi.

The additions to the varsity cheering squad were Elaine Gilbert and Irene Fontana. We were also proud to see Sandy Simpson and Joan Plotner varsity majorettes.

One of the biggest thrills during the year was the selection of our class ring. Shirley Langevin, Bob Blow, Andy Eastman, Bob Weeks, Doug Burnham, Carole Rizzi, Bob French, Jim Corologos, and Edith Lawson were the students picked from each home room to represent the class. We chose a ring with a blue stone and a vertical band through the middle. On the gold band is a small emblem which has SHS in the middle surrounded by the words Spaulding High School, Barre, Vt. On each side of the stones are the numerals 1954.

Actors in our Sophomore class play, "Introducing Debbie" were Sandy Simpson, Jean Abbiati, Lois Montague, Mary Albinola, John Dawson, Dan Yett, Roland Batchelder, Marlene Heuschele, Pat Culver, and Joan Pruneau. Managers were Norman Belanger, Pat Byrns, Marcia Legru, and Winnifred Hill. Mr. Cain directed the play.

We used a new system for selecting class officers. We had a nominating committee consisting of last year's class officers and three members of the class. Nominating three for each office, they chose the candidates for the election. The results were Bob French, President; Jim Corologos, Vice-President; Edith Lawson, Secretary, and Doug Burnham, Treasurer.

1st ROW: J. Dwyer, B. Tomasi, M. Maisonneuve, Miss White, W. Hill, S. Simpson.

Our junior year brings hard work and fun.

The Juniors are home room champs!

At the head of our class were E. Howe,
B. Tomasi, W. Hill, and A. Eisenwinter.

Our Junior year started off well when we elected Allan Eisenwinter as President; Bob Tomasi as Vice-President; Winnifred Hill as Secretary, and Elaine Howe as Treasurer to head our class. A nominating committee chose various people for offices, and the final vote was put to the class. The nominating committee was Elaine Howe, Allan Eisenwinter, Silvio Nativi, Roger Rivard, Raymond Brassard, Bob French, Jim Corologos, and Edith Lawson.

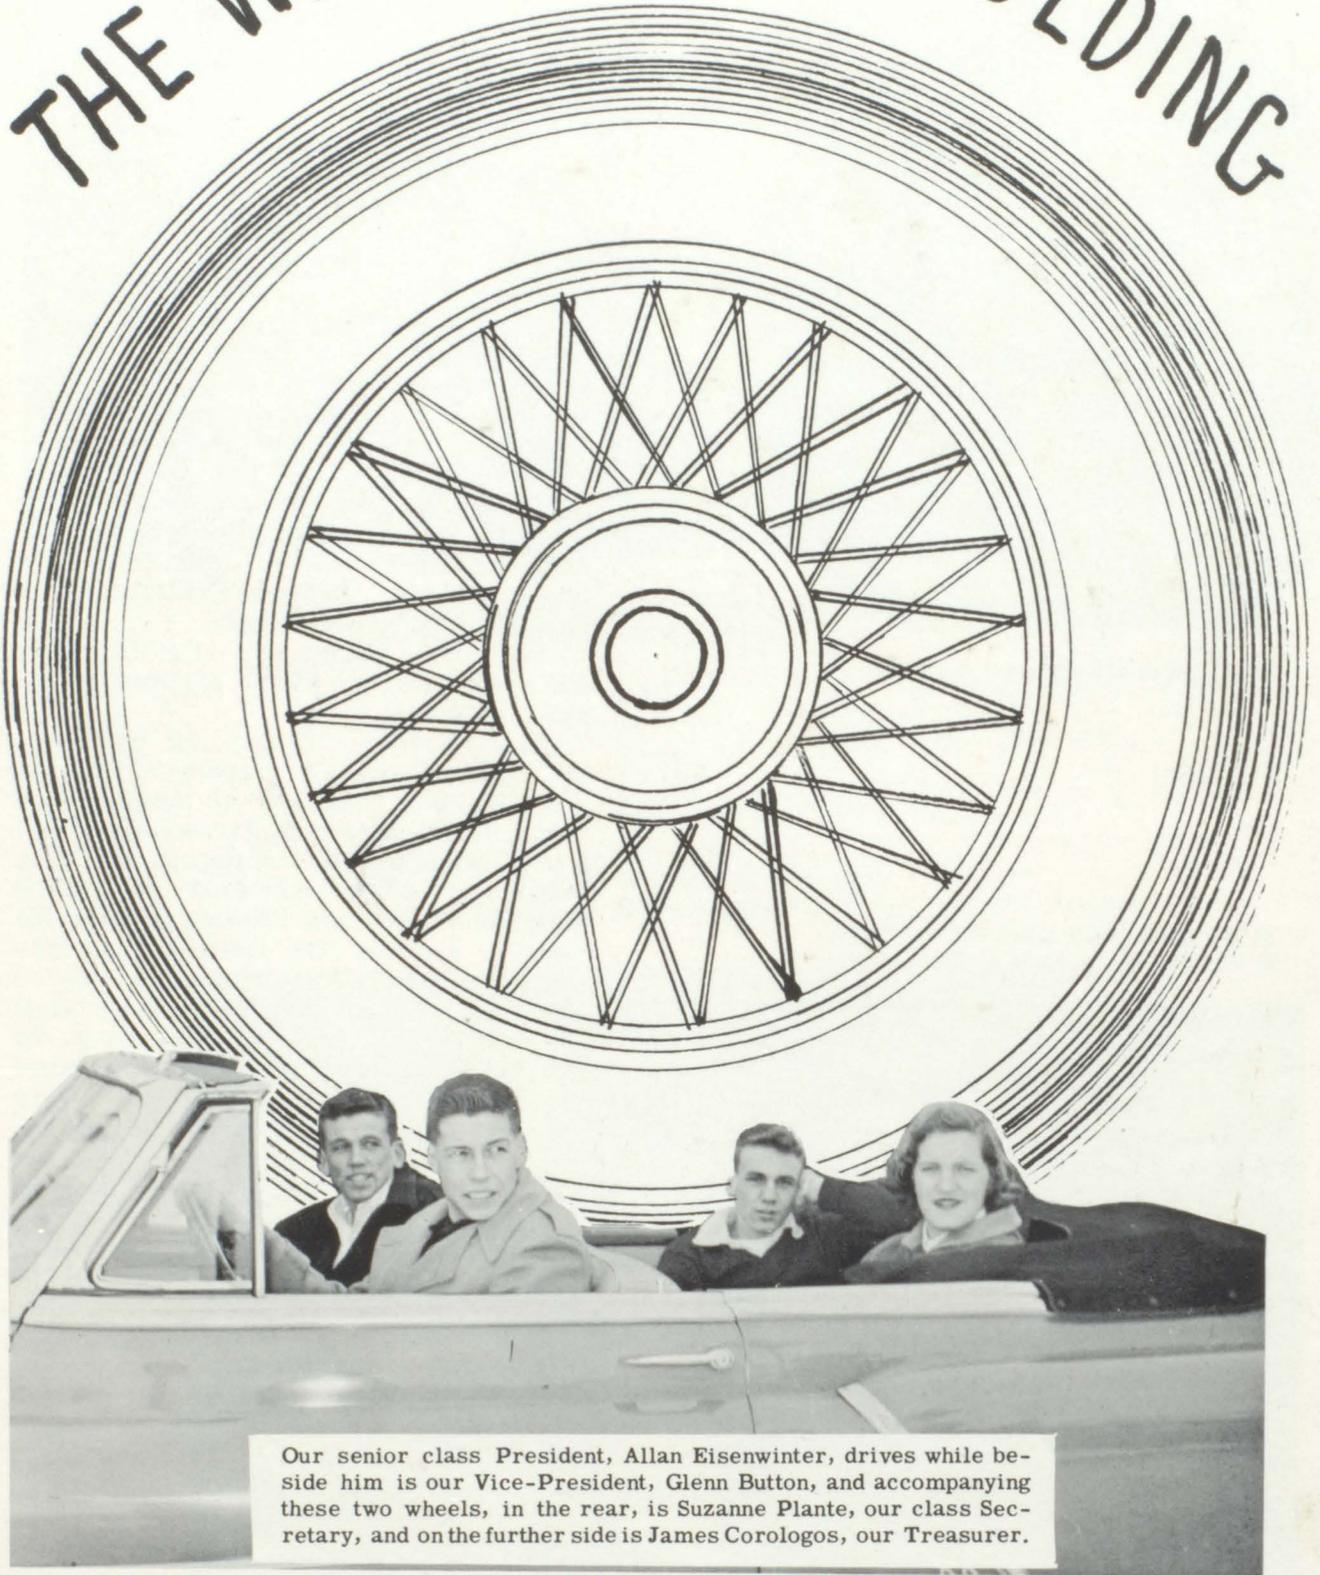

The championship home room basketball team was 114-A, a Junior home room. This team consisted of David Biggs, Jim Corologos, Bob Blow, Raymond Brassard, Roger Brault, and Richard Corrigan.

Majorettes chosen this year from our class were Marilyn Cozzi, Maureen Smith, and Lise Monty.

May 15, 1953 - at last! Our big dance, the Junior Prom. On January 9, 1953, an assembly was held, and we elected David Biggs, James Corologos, James Dwyer, Marilyn Maisonneuve, Sandra Simpson, and Emily Pearlstein as our committee who worked along with the class officers to make the dance a success. The theme, "Some Enchanted Evening," was presented with an island as a center-piece on which was built a thatched hut, surrounded by trees. So the center pieces on the tables, which were placed in a circle around the floor, were palm trees with a native girl or monkey. On the back wall there was strung a net with flowers and fish scattered over it. The center baskets represented a king and queen while the side baskets were filled with flowers. The delightful music was by the UVM Catamounts.

Again the Juniors were Champs when on February 5, they won the Class Play Trophy for their play "Balcony Scene." The cast consisted of Charles Belknap, Robert Keene, Jack Dawson, Norine Atherton, Sandy Simpson, Pat Byrns, Ed Barslow, and Chy Dean.

The Scholastic S is an honor award made by the Spaulding High School Alumni Association. A student must attain an A average in four prepared subjects.

The number of students who have won this award is gratifying, for it shows that they are making the best possible use of their talents.

In America we are granted certain freedoms which we should value highly. If we continue to misuse and abuse these privileges we are in danger of losing them. Maybe all of us cannot win the highest honors, but they are an incentive to us to do our best.

Our leading students

Emily is already fulfilling the class prophecy of being the girl Most Likely to Succeed. The high honors of valedictorian and Good Citizenship Girl have both been awarded to Emily, who certainly deserves them.

Emily's talent is not limited to her scholastic ability. She has played the drums in both the band and the orchestra for four years.

She also possesses artistic ability which was admirably displayed at our Junior Prom; Emily was a member of the hard working committee.

Congratulations to a wonderful classmate.

Charles Belknap and Emily Pearlstein won the Junior English Prizes. Emily was chosen to be Good Citizenship Girl also.

Carole, our salutatorian, also has maintained an A average during her four years at Spaulding, making her scholastic record just slightly lower than Emily's.

Carole is noted for her musical talent. She has accompanied the orchestra and glee club and has represented Spaulding for three years at the Winooski Valley Music Festival.

She plans to attend Baypath Junior College in Springfield, Mass. Carole's business ability has already been exercised in her duties as co-business manager of "Our Echo" this year.

We all know Carole will be successful.

Lavin hits paydirt at Montpelier Game.

The Class of '54, although with a record of 5 and 3, has certainly proved itself as one of the state's strongest. Our early season luck didn't seem to last, but this wasn't due to the fact that power was lacking. We certainly outplayed our opponents, but the lucky breaks didn't seem to be with us when they were most needed.

Our backfield, working from the T formation, proved itself to be one of the fastest, strongest, and hardest-hitting ever to perform on a Spaulding gridiron.

Our rugged, stubborn line, as impregnable as the Rock of Gibraltar, certainly gave all that they had. This great force certainly proved to its opponents that Spaulding tradition of power and spirit was contained in this year's team.

We were very lucky this season. Our only great injuries were Gingras with a broken leg and Williamson with a broken arm.

Our greatest game of the season was played against a strong, southern team -- Rutland High School. This ended with a score 19 to 16. Our power was certainly visible at this performance.

Because of the brilliant efforts of Coach Corey and his assistants, Coaches Wescott and Hamilton, our team has hung up its dates with a record to be proud of.

Our backfield consisted of such outstanding players as Floreal "Fighting Bull" Lavin, "Fearless" Frank Corey, and "Galloping" Vic Fontana. These men did a fine job of spearheading our attack.

Defensively, our men did an excellent job of holding down our opponents. This was through the efforts of such fine players as Rolly Batchelder, Bob Tomasi, Jim Dwyer, Moose Button, Punchy Ross, Bob Waugh, Roger Brault, Bob P'eduzzi, and Dick Bullard. The latter handed in a large percentage of this season's tackles.

The 1953-1954 season was one of both surprises and heartbreaks. Ending the season with a 19-2 record, the Tide took many important games under pressure and were tops in the Northern League with an 11-1 record. The only loss in league play was one suffered at the hands of the Burlington Seahorses in Burlington. Among other things during the season, Spaulding scored 207 points in two games, beating B. F. A. of St. Albans 107-67 and St. Johnsbury 100-62. This is a fine showing for a high school team.

There were many exciting moments in the season, all the way from the first game with the mighty Seahorses of Burlington, which the Tide took by seven points, to the last victory over Montpelier. But none was more spectacular or truly fantastic than the first game with the Solons of M. H. S., which Spaulding won in overtime. It was in this game that a never-say-die Spaulding Quintet tied up the game after trailing by three points with only five seconds left to break the back of the Solons.

Baseball crowns a successful sports year.

Our 1954 season should prove to be very successful with Bob Waugh, Jim Corologos, Bob McKee, Allan Eisenwinter, Alfred Saldi, and Glenn Button, all veterans from the '53 season, forming the nucleus of this year's team. Last year's team hung up their spikes with a five and five record. Although Spaulding had some tough luck in the scoring column, they brought home some good victories. Most outstanding of these was the 8-2 win over Montpelier when the Tide's field proved an asset.

The pitching for the Tide was well taken care of by Jim Corologos and Allan Eisenwinter. First base was held down by Bob Waugh who did an exceedingly good job. Glenn Button at second base, Alfred Saldi in the outfield and Bob McKee behind the plate performed well for the Tide.

June 21, 1953, opened a glorious week for sixteen members of our class.

Those attending Boys' State at Norwich University were Charlie Belknap, Dave Biggs, Bob Blow, Dick Bullard, Allan Eisenwinter, Butch Ford, Bob McKee, Silvio Nativi, Dick Rossi, and Dan Yett.

The delegates to Girls' State at Vermont Junior College were Jean Abbiati, Marilyn Cozzi, Leslie Dineen, Marcia Lawson, and Lise Monty.

Both boys and girls were quickly swept into the tide of petition signing and campaigning.

Bob McKee's election to the office of Lieutenant Governor topped the list of significant ones held by Barre delegates.

The week was climaxed by trips to the State Capitol, Friday afternoon, where mock legislative sessions were held.

That evening the states combined for a successful dance at Girls' State.

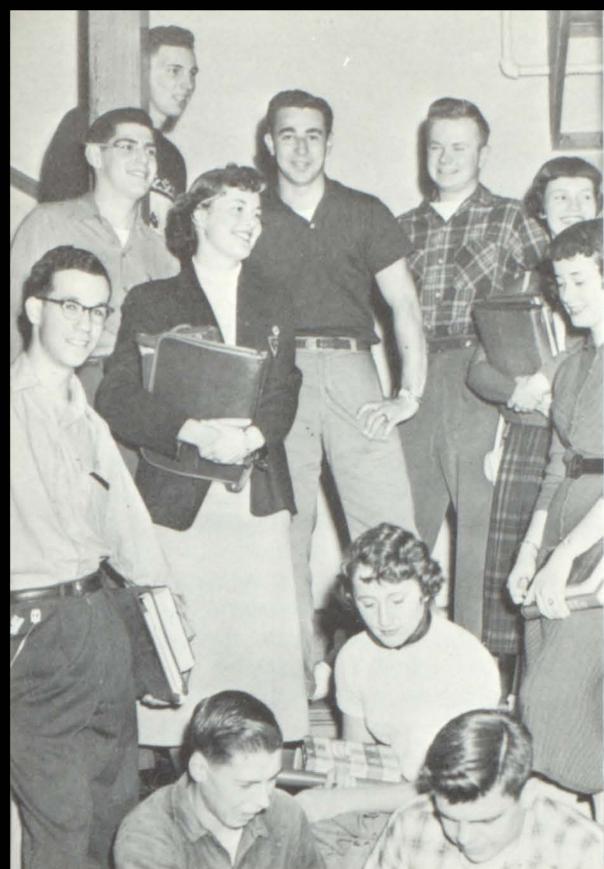

Saturday came much too soon for all. But everyone returned home the richer in knowledge of government, friendships, and experiences.

Commotion reigns in Spaulding homerooms every other Friday when the Sentinels are passed out. Our prize winning newspaper is always full of interesting news articles, editorials, and sports events.

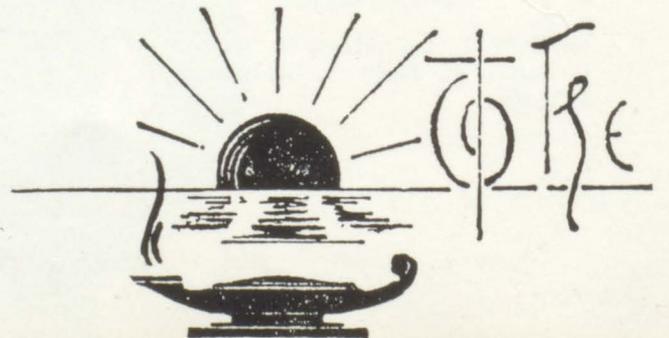

This year the Sentinel has a new adviser, Mrs. Marjorie Worthington, who comes from Rockport, Massachusetts. Although new at this type of work, Mrs. Worthington is doing an excellent job at helping the students with the newspaper. She also teaches English I.

Several ambitious Spauldingites spent much time and effort in helping to put out each edition.

us well informed.

There is always a representative of the staff at school functions. Many of the staff use one of their study halls to work on the paper.

The Sentinel office is the center of activity of the staff, for this is where the paper is put together. It is also one of the busiest rooms of the school and at almost anytime the noise of the typewriter, or voices busily discussing articles for the next issue can be heard.

We hope that the Sentinel will be able to hold its place in competition this year as well as it has done in previous years.

"Hark! The Herald Angels Sing"

Our horns are musical

The true meaning and spirit of Christmas was wonderfully exemplified in our annual Yuletide program by the combined musical organizations. The presentation of the Christmas Story, narrated by Charles Belknap, with appropriate music, greatly enhanced the meaning of this sacred holiday.

The spring concert featured "A Tribute to Romberg" by the Band and Glee Club as well as many other numbers suited to the occasion.

Below, we present those stalwart senior singers who "made" the Boys' Choir, which Mr. Mori organized this year, and whose harmony proved to be a noble and welcome addition to our programs.

2nd ROW: J. Corologos, R. Ford, D. Ross, R. Waugh, R. Tomasi, R. Rivard, D. Batchelder.

1st ROW: V. Fontana, J. Dwyer, R. Bullard, F. Lavin, A. Eastman, D. Biggs.

Sing and play the Mori way.

and, in delightful accord,

No account of our musical doings would be complete without a tribute to Mr. Mori. Whether he is training the band in the difficult feat of marching and playing at the same time, trying to accomplish a pianissimo with the Glee Club, or instilling an appreciation of good music into his 6th period class, he is a sincere and able teacher.

Leslie has been a colorful and fine performer in her capacity as Drum Majorette.

Beside her picture we see the Three Jacks who performed at our successful January pops concert.

Our Girls' Choir has consistently produced a very fine type of singing throughout the year.

2nd ROW: C. Penrod, G. Rouleau, L. Dineen, N. Pellon, M. Corriveau, L. Monty, C. Morin, C. Philbrook.

1st ROW: M. Albinola, A. Lavin, J. McLeod, P. Booth, E. Leslie, N. Atherton.

The new uniforms finally arrive.

Sparkling in their spanking new uniforms of maroon and blue, our band seems inspired this year to play better than ever before. This comment is heard on all sides as they perform at the games, march in parade formation, lead the pep rallies, and take major part in school concerts. Their first appearance in these striking new outfits was in the unforgettable pops concert on January 20, 1954, when each number was greeted with much well-deserved applause by a large audience.

The Music Council, composed of enthusiastic officers from each musical group, has a hand in organizing all our programs and concerts.

Our orchestra has thirty-five members under the capable baton of Mr. Mori and has provided music on many occasions throughout the year, ranging from the solemn and impressive strains of the Spaulding March at Commencement to gay waltzes and Spanish airs complete with maracas and tango rhythms.

Pat Culver, Carole Rizzi, and Kay Sabens, '55, have spent many enjoyable and profitable hours as accompanists for the various musical groups. Pat and Carole have enlivened many concerts for the past three years with their two-piano artistry, and Kay has been the capable accompanist for the Girls' Choir.

The French Club got off to a flying start with an unusually good freshman initiation. As in other years, the members worked long and hard on their annual show, the "French Follies." President Lise Monty presided over the monthly meetings.

This year, the Junior Classical League included students taking Latin II as well as Latin III and IV. The monthly meetings were highlighted by programs depicting phases of Roman life under the rulers of the time. Recreation and refreshments brought each meeting to a close.

One of the important events of the year for the Spanish Club was its annual party with the French Club in the Spaulding gym. Members and their guests enjoyed games, dancing, and refreshments. The clubs' goal was an assembly program featuring a Spanish play during the pre-Lenten season.

They have also helped in worth while community-projects.

Each month an educational program is presented to the members of the Future Nurses of America. These meetings, held at the Barre City Hospital, were planned by Miss Doris MacDonald. During the year, speakers representing all phases of nursing gave up-to-date and valuable information to the girls, helping them to decide which type of nursing suited each best.

Our crowning glory!

The coronation of Spaulding's royal couple on December 12, 1953, was one of the year's most exciting affairs. A large crowd gathered to watch the spectacle, dance, and enjoy the talents of a group of Spauldingites who performed just before the coronation.

Trumpets heralded the arrival of the court who marched down the aisle to the music of the Commodores. Two adorable crown-bearers, each carrying a pillow with a crown on it, preceded the attendants. Then, while the anxious crowd looked on, Ex-Queen Claire Laferriere placed a crown on the head of King David Biggs who in turn crowned Queen Sandra Simpson.

The Lighthouse rays are constantly attracting new members, and each year the group grows larger.

Few people realize the work that goes into the Lighthouse activities. There are junior chaperones who take care of the opening and closing of the club, the snack bar, and its finances and generally keep the place in good order. Last, but not least, are the adult chaperones, who are the parents of Lighthouse members. We indeed owe them our kindest thanks and respect for their help in making the Lighthouse a success.

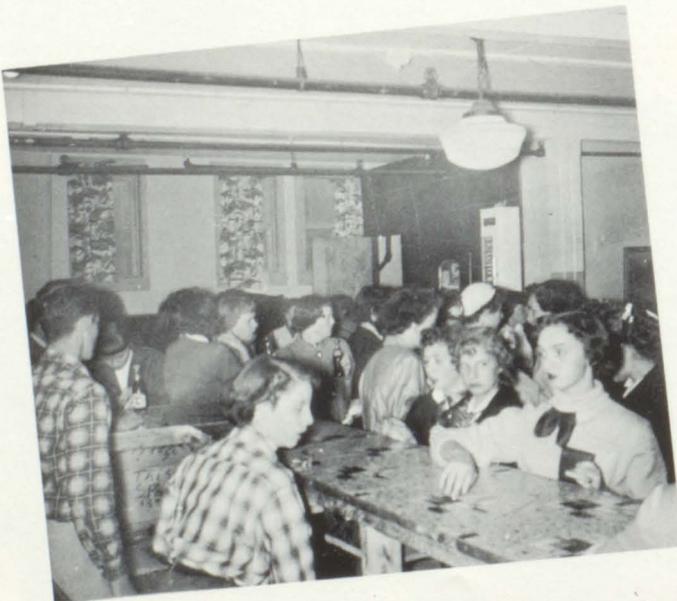

The adult committee consists of Mrs. Stephen Dineen, President; Harold Clark, Treasurer, and Mrs. Peter Luce, head of the chaperones.

The Lighthouse collects funds through membership tickets and snack bar receipts, but the balance is raised through student activities, such as the annual street dance. Another recreation of the group is square dancing, and each year a pingpong tournament is held in which every member is eligible to compete.

The Lighthouse truly serves its original purpose in giving the teen-agers of Barre a place to get together and enjoy themselves.

Production on "Our Echo" began way back on September 16. We spent the first few weeks choosing a printer, photographers, type of book, cover, and theme. We also lined up our staff. The staff is as follows: Edith Lawson and Jean Abbiati, co-editors; Bob French and Carole Rizzi, co-business managers; Leslie Dineen, Senior editor; Freddie Hill, club and faculty editor; Sandy Simpson, Allan Eisenwinter, and Anita Cassani, artists; and Bob Tomasi, Dick Bullard, and Silvio Nativi, sports writers. Others on the staff were Meredith Watt, Elaine Gilbert, Marcia Legru, Andrew Eastman, Fred Donald, and Angela Buttura. Jack Dawson was our photographer, and Gisele Rouleau and Rita Gregoire were typists.

After finally deciding these things, we started to learn a little about turning out our year-book. Under Mrs. McGill's guidance, we turned slowly from a pretty green crew to a fairly capable group.

Then started the work: writing biographies and copy, taking pictures, and holding a food sale, the Coronation Dance, and selling name cards to make money. Headed by Carole Rizzi, a very capable committee took over most of the fund-raising projects. They were Mary Albinola, Pat Byrns, Margaret Florucci, Marcia Lawson, Meredith Watt, Glenn Button, Jim Corologos, Allan Eisenwinter, Suzanne Plante, Betty Lou Laquerre, Gisele Rouleau, and Marilyn Giacherio. Our class advisers, Miss White, Miss Dix, Miss Coburn, and Mr. Clarke, did a wonderful job helping us.

Every day a small group, Edith, Jean, Leslie, Carole, Sandy, Anita, Angel, and Freddie worked fifth period on the many things that needed to be done.

We met our deadlines somehow and we hope that you'll enjoy the result.

Mrs. McGill, Echo adviser, discusses copy with co-editors Edith Lawson and Jean Abbiati.

Our business staff, Carole Rizzi and Bob French, discuss our financial problems.

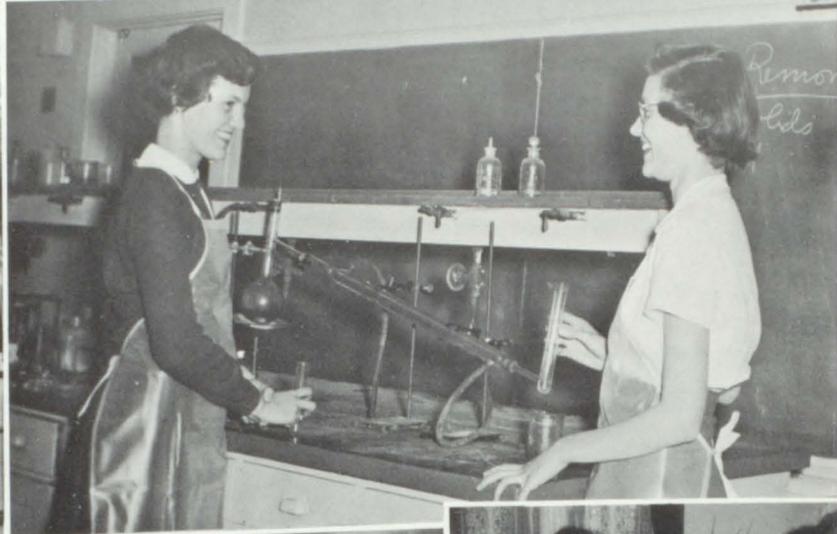

our trip is ended.

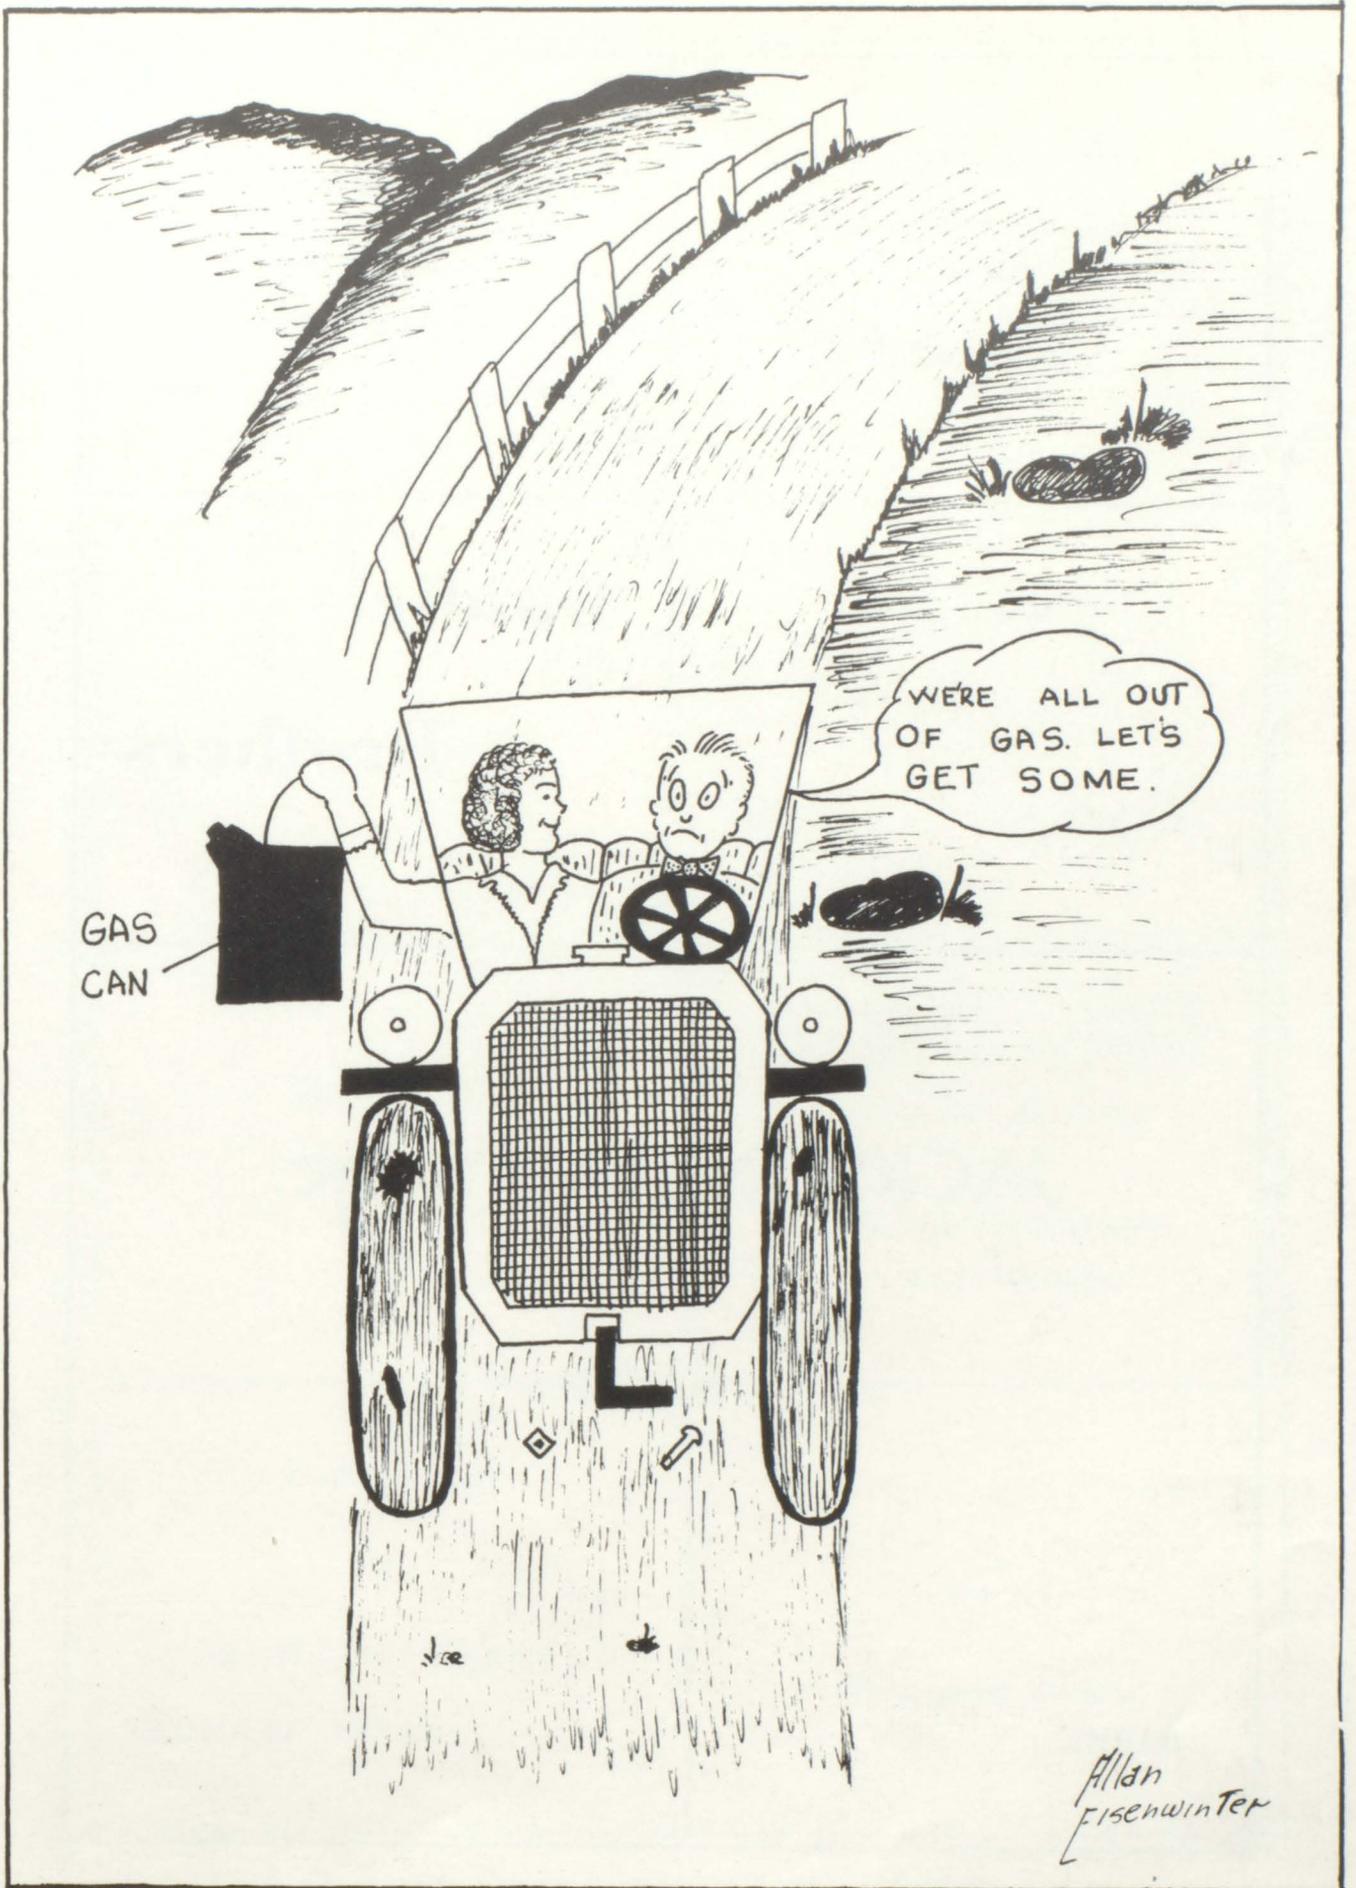

2nd ROW: A. Cassani, A. Eisenwinter, M. Legru, G. Rouleau, D. Bullard, F. Donald, S. Nativi, E. Lawson, A. Eastman, B. French.
