Studying!

Fight, team, fight!

During our four years at Spaulding, our life has been filled with studies, activities, and fun. We have found, underlying all these things, a spirit that has bound us closer to our friends and to our teachers. This spirit has been evident in many places: in the classroom, in the corridor, in the study hall, and even on the football field. In our high school years, we have grown to cherish this spirit.

Thus, we have chosen as the theme for the 1958 Our Echo, the Spaulding Spirit, and through the words, Spaulding and Spirit, we hope that we will be able to recall for many years our activities and our classmates.

Our teachers get instructions.

Our basketball team, although not having a tremendous season, certainly showed a marked improvement over last year.

One of the highlights this year was the fact that we beat Montpelier in both games. The last game against Montpelier, the most thrilling of the year, was won in an overtime. Another highlight of our season was the first Cathedral-Spaulling game. In this game, Spaulling scored the almost unbelievable total of fifty points in the first half. The team ended the game with a grand total of eighty-five points.

Mike Induni, Ray Rouleau, and Gary Croteau were the seniors on this year's squad. Mike and Ray were the co-captains.

BASEBALL COPY

The spring of '58 promises to be a good one for the Crimson Tide's baseball team. Many veteran lettermen and many promising underclassmen are preparing to play ball this spring.

The veteran seniors on the team include Gary Croteau, Ron Tofani, Jeff Corey, Fred Colby, Nicki Carmolli, and Bob Gauld.

The 1957 version of the Tide compiled a record of seven wins and four losses.

One of the F.H.A. activities is a tea for teachers.

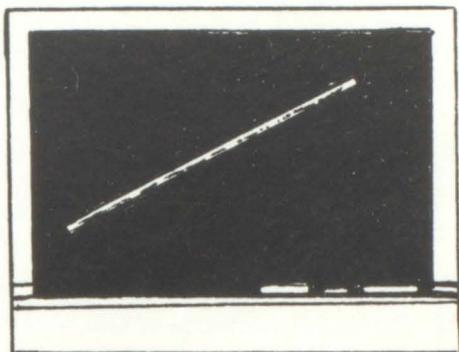

The Future Homemakers of America meets monthly. During the year, they enjoy a varied group of programs. Miss Dix and Mrs. Marshall are their able advisors.

In row two are Elaine Rudd, treasurer; Helen Smith, song leader; and Janet Dickinson, parliamentarian. In row one Nadine Gilman, historian; Roberta Sibley, president; Genella Buick, vice president; and Joan Kenerson, news reporter.

The Future Teachers of America is a group of juniors and seniors who are interested in teaching. Throughout the year, their programs show different phases of teaching.

In the picture are Anne Lavin, president, and Sylvia Ladd, secretary-treasurer. Miss Meisner and Miss Sinclair are the advisors.

our many clubs

The Key Club enjoys painting our goal posts.

The Key Club is a club consisting of Spaulding boys who are sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Two of their many projects have been giving red stools to cheerleaders and selling wreaths.

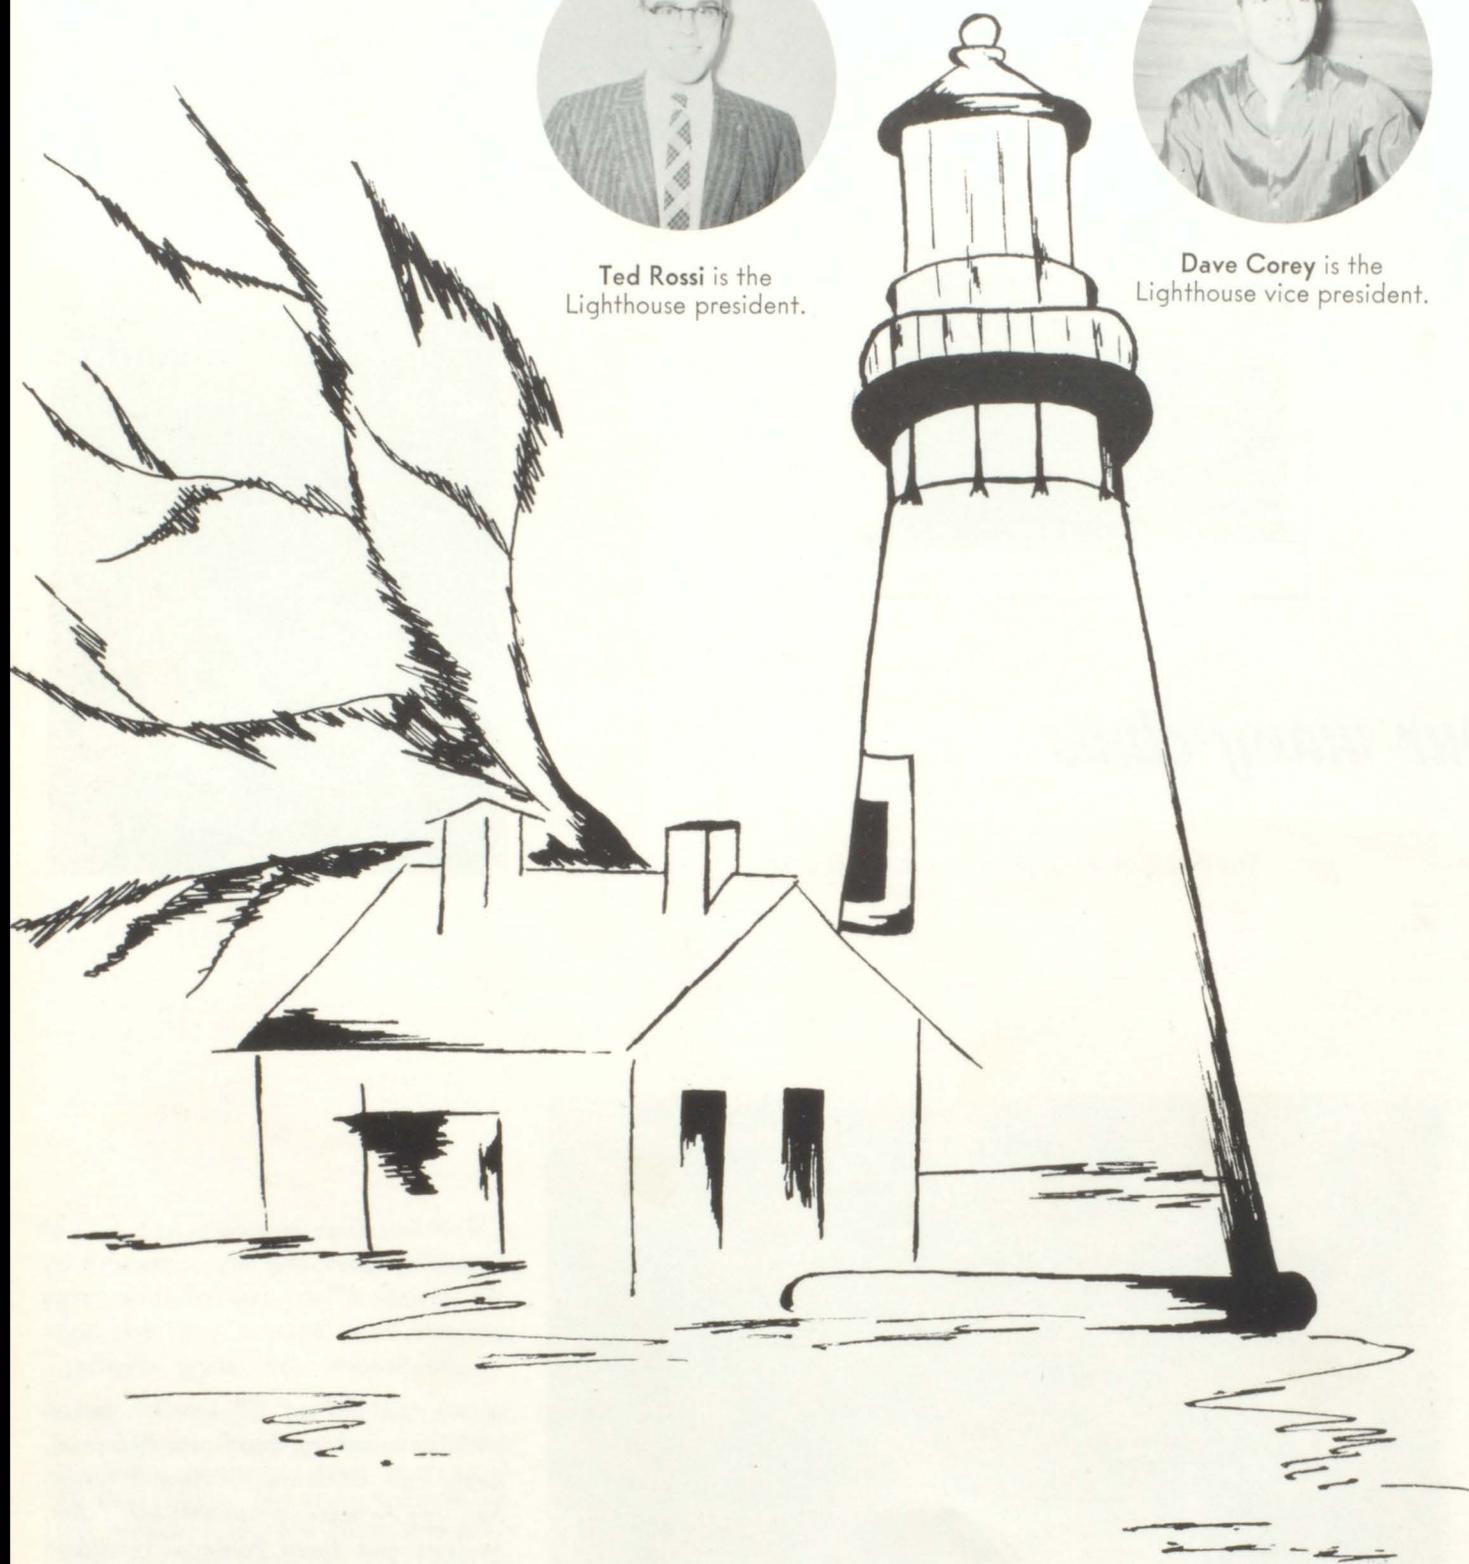

In the picture are Bill Lawliss, corresponding secretary; Ted Rossi, vice president; Tom Dunleavy, lieutenant governor; Jay Aylward, president; Mr. Fuller, advisor; and Dave Fontana, recording secretary.

Ted Rossi is the Lighthouse president.

Dave Corey is the Lighthouse vice president.

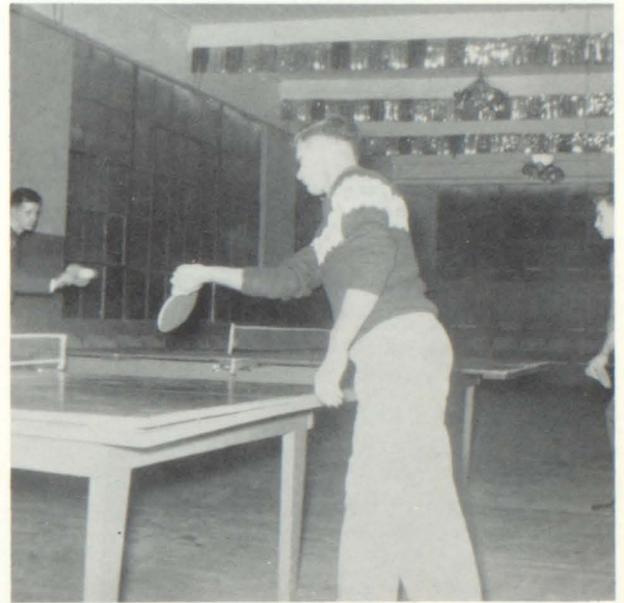

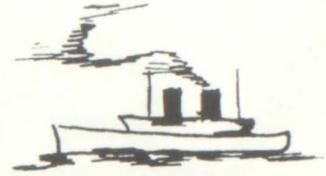

The Lighthouse, our teenage activity center, is open for our enjoyment each Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday evenings.

"Our Echo" Honored At Convention

"Our Echo," the Spaulding high school senior yearbook, won first place in its class in the 23rd annual contest and critique sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press association in New York recently. The entry was among offset classbooks of senior high schools and was rated a first place by a board of twenty judges. The judges considered 1200 books representing the work of students from elementary through college levels.

"Our Echo" has placed first in the competition six times in the past eight years, and in 1951 and 1954 the yearbook was awarded the medalist award.

The 2-day conference ended Saturday with luncheon in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel. There were more than a thousand students and their faculty advisors from secondary schools throughout the country who met at Columbia University. The conference is designed to improve the students' work through an intensive review of all phases of yearbook production.

Mrs. Ruth McGill was the faculty advisor for preparation of the 1957 yearbook, and David Seeley was business manager. The co-editors of the 1957 production were Julie Watts and Douglas Gordon. Nancy Pelkey was business manager. The theme selected was "Memories are Made of These, Our Years at Spaulding."

'Kind Lady' Visits Spaulding High

On November 14 and 15, the class of '58 presented a melodrama "Kind Lady" written by Chodorov and adapted from a story by Hugh Pole.

Taking the part of the kind lady was Sharon Belanger, while Calcagni was Mr. Foster, a representative of her London Bank. Abbott was played by Maurille; Helen Smith. Suzanne Beaudoin was Rose, the faithful part of Phyllis Glennie. Herries' niece, was acted by le Boisvert, and the American salesman, Peter Santard, was played by Dilio Mariotti. Jay Aylmer was the doctor and Noella Brunson was the part of the ailing Aggie. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were played by Douglas Carr and Lillian Aggie was Genella Buid. Rosenburg an art dealer was played by John Shaughnessy.

At the conclusion of the play, leading man, Maurille presented the play to Helen E. Nute, with a cast, and John Shadro members of the cast, senior class advisor, White, with a gift. He expressed appreciation to all the Mori conducted the play during intermission.

The make-up was done by Leonard Aube, Susan Aube, Laurette Boudreau, and Valliere.

Art department presented the many posters for the senior production.

The stage and set were Emile Bisson, Lucien Bolduc, and Joanne Rousse.

In September 1955, 222 members of our class returned as sophomores. We chose Norman Lavoie, president; Raymond Rouleau, vice president; Jean Gianarelli, secretary; and Geoffrey Corey, treasurer. This was a busy year; in October we held our Sophomore Hop, which featured Mike Induni doing a "Halloween Dragnet." Later in the year, with the help of our ring committee, we voted for and chose our ring. For many of us, this ring in future years will exemplify our Spaulding spirit.

Ellen Ann, Harriet, and Tommy decorate the auditorium in a Halloween theme for our Sophomore Hop.

In our junior year, we became aware of the need for class funds. To prevent a shortage of money needed in our senior year, we sold Spaulding banners, pins, and book covers. The class officers who ably led us through this year were Tom Dunleavy, president; Marcia Muzzy, vice president; Sandy Cameron, secretary; and Jeff Corey, treasurer.

Elaine, Jean, Ellen Ann, Patty, Harriet, and Phyllis look over banners and pins that our class sell to earn money.

to guide us,

Monitors between classes.

Just before the bell rings announcing the end of a class, a few students may be seen hurrying to stand in the middle of the hallways. This is only Spaulding's monitor squad, which directs the student traffic.

The Monitors are a group of seniors especially chosen because of their leadership, dependability, and responsibility.

This year, their advisor, Mr. Dean, has guided them in many of their problems.

Student Council Officers: Tom Dunleavy, vice president; Mike Induni, treasurer; Marcia Muzzy, president; Elaine Ambrosini, recording secretary; Sandy Cameron, corresponding secretary.

our activities,

President Marcia and Advisor Mr. Williams.

The Spaulding Student Council is the governing body of our school. Members are home room presidents and all seniors who were members their junior year.

After a campaign among three eligible seniors, the president is elected by the whole school. Other officers are elected by the council.

Senior members include Marcia Muzzy, Elaine Ambrosini, Sandy Cameron, Tom Dunleavy, Mike Induni, Sylvia Ladd, Naomi Simoneau, and Carmen Reidy.

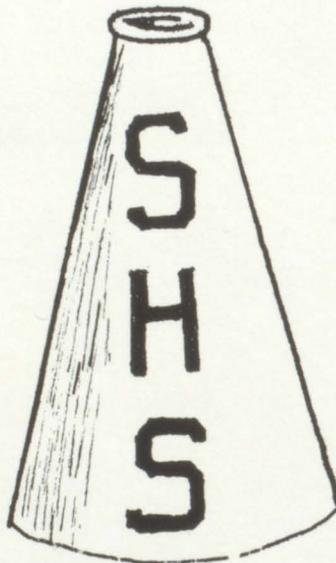

What adds color to our games? Most of us around S. H. S. would agree it's our cheerleaders. Their smart, snappy uniforms of red blouses and blue skirts really show up, and they are always there. At every game we find them helping cheer on the team with motions, peppy cheers, and yells. We have a fine-looking squad.

In the train cheer formation are A. Gauthier, C. Buttura, R. Couillard, C. Saia, K. McGoff, R. D'Agostino, S. Lovely.

What's the next cheer?

Strutting high are M. Muzzy, G. Buick, L. Drown, D. Valliere, J. Provencher, J. Knutson.

Right in step are our majorettes. We look forward to their twirling at half-time periods of all the games. Their performances are always well received. We are also proud to see them with the band, whether it be marching to a football game or leading the school song. They look nice in red and blue uniforms.

Our captain, Marcia

What's so interesting?

What seems to be of little concern to crownbearers brings great joy to King Tom and Queen Jean.

Jean Gianarelli, voted most popular girl at Spaulding, is congratulated by runners-up Sandy Cameron, Cyndy Buttura, Nini Gauthier, and Marcia Muzzy.

Micheal Induni, Ray Rouleau, Dave Corey, and Dick Lafayette congratulate Tom Dunleavy on being crowned King of Spaulding.

D is for the dances that we attend this year. The Freshman Reception, the Sophomore Hop, and the Junior Prom are all important to us. But, as seniors, the most important dance of the year is our Coronation, where King Tom and Queen Jean are crowned to rule us and our spirit for the year.

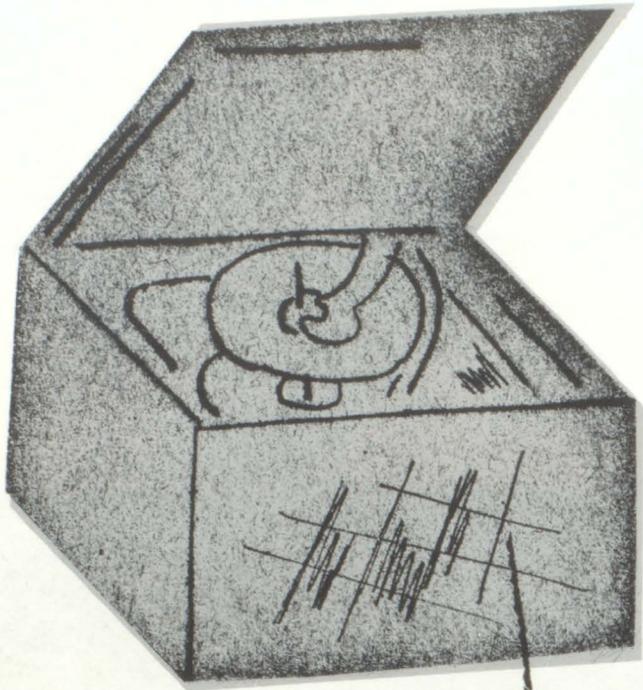

Queen Jean gives a big smile, but King Tom still seems to be in a daze from all the excitement at Spaulding's Royal Night.

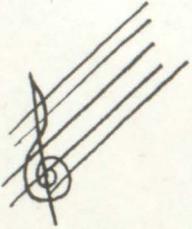

George Bond and Louise Ambrosini lead the candidates for King and Queen to the stage for the crowning.

They go far in fostering the school spirit among us students. This is our tribute to our teachers.

We all have to eat, so our capable cooks, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Keir, prepare our food.

What would we do without our head janitor and janitress, Mr. Emslie and Mrs. Milne?

Mr. Ferrari, our assistant janitor, and absent from this picture is Mr. Gariboldi.

A fine looking group of harmonizers, wouldn't you agree?

N stands for notes, musical that is. Our musical organizations are very important to our spirit, for what would a football game be without the band, plays without our orchestra, or Christmas without the glee club's carols?

Our delegation to the Winooski Valley Chorus was, row two: S. Ladd, J. Gianarelli, P. Perry, C. Reidy, L. O'Connor, S. Murray. Row one: M. Ryan, S. Wildbur, C. Buttura, H. Waugh, M. McGoff, B. Gioria.

Our school band in full uniform takes time out to pose for us.

and the Spaulding Band

The Winooski Valley Band in their final rehearsal.

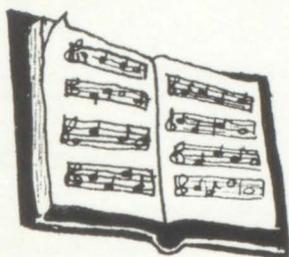

When the band is rehearsing on Thursday, we can hear music all over the school. Mr. Mori, the director, spends many hours at sectionals and after school. When concert time rolls around, we have a polished group performing.

Our orchestra rehearses on Tuesday afternoons. We always look forward to their performance at all the plays. Mr. Mori and Mr. Foulkes both work with the musicians at sectionals and after school. The softer tones of the violins are beautiful.

Winooski Valley Orchestra rehearses for the concert.

augment our Orchestra.

New England Food at Its Best

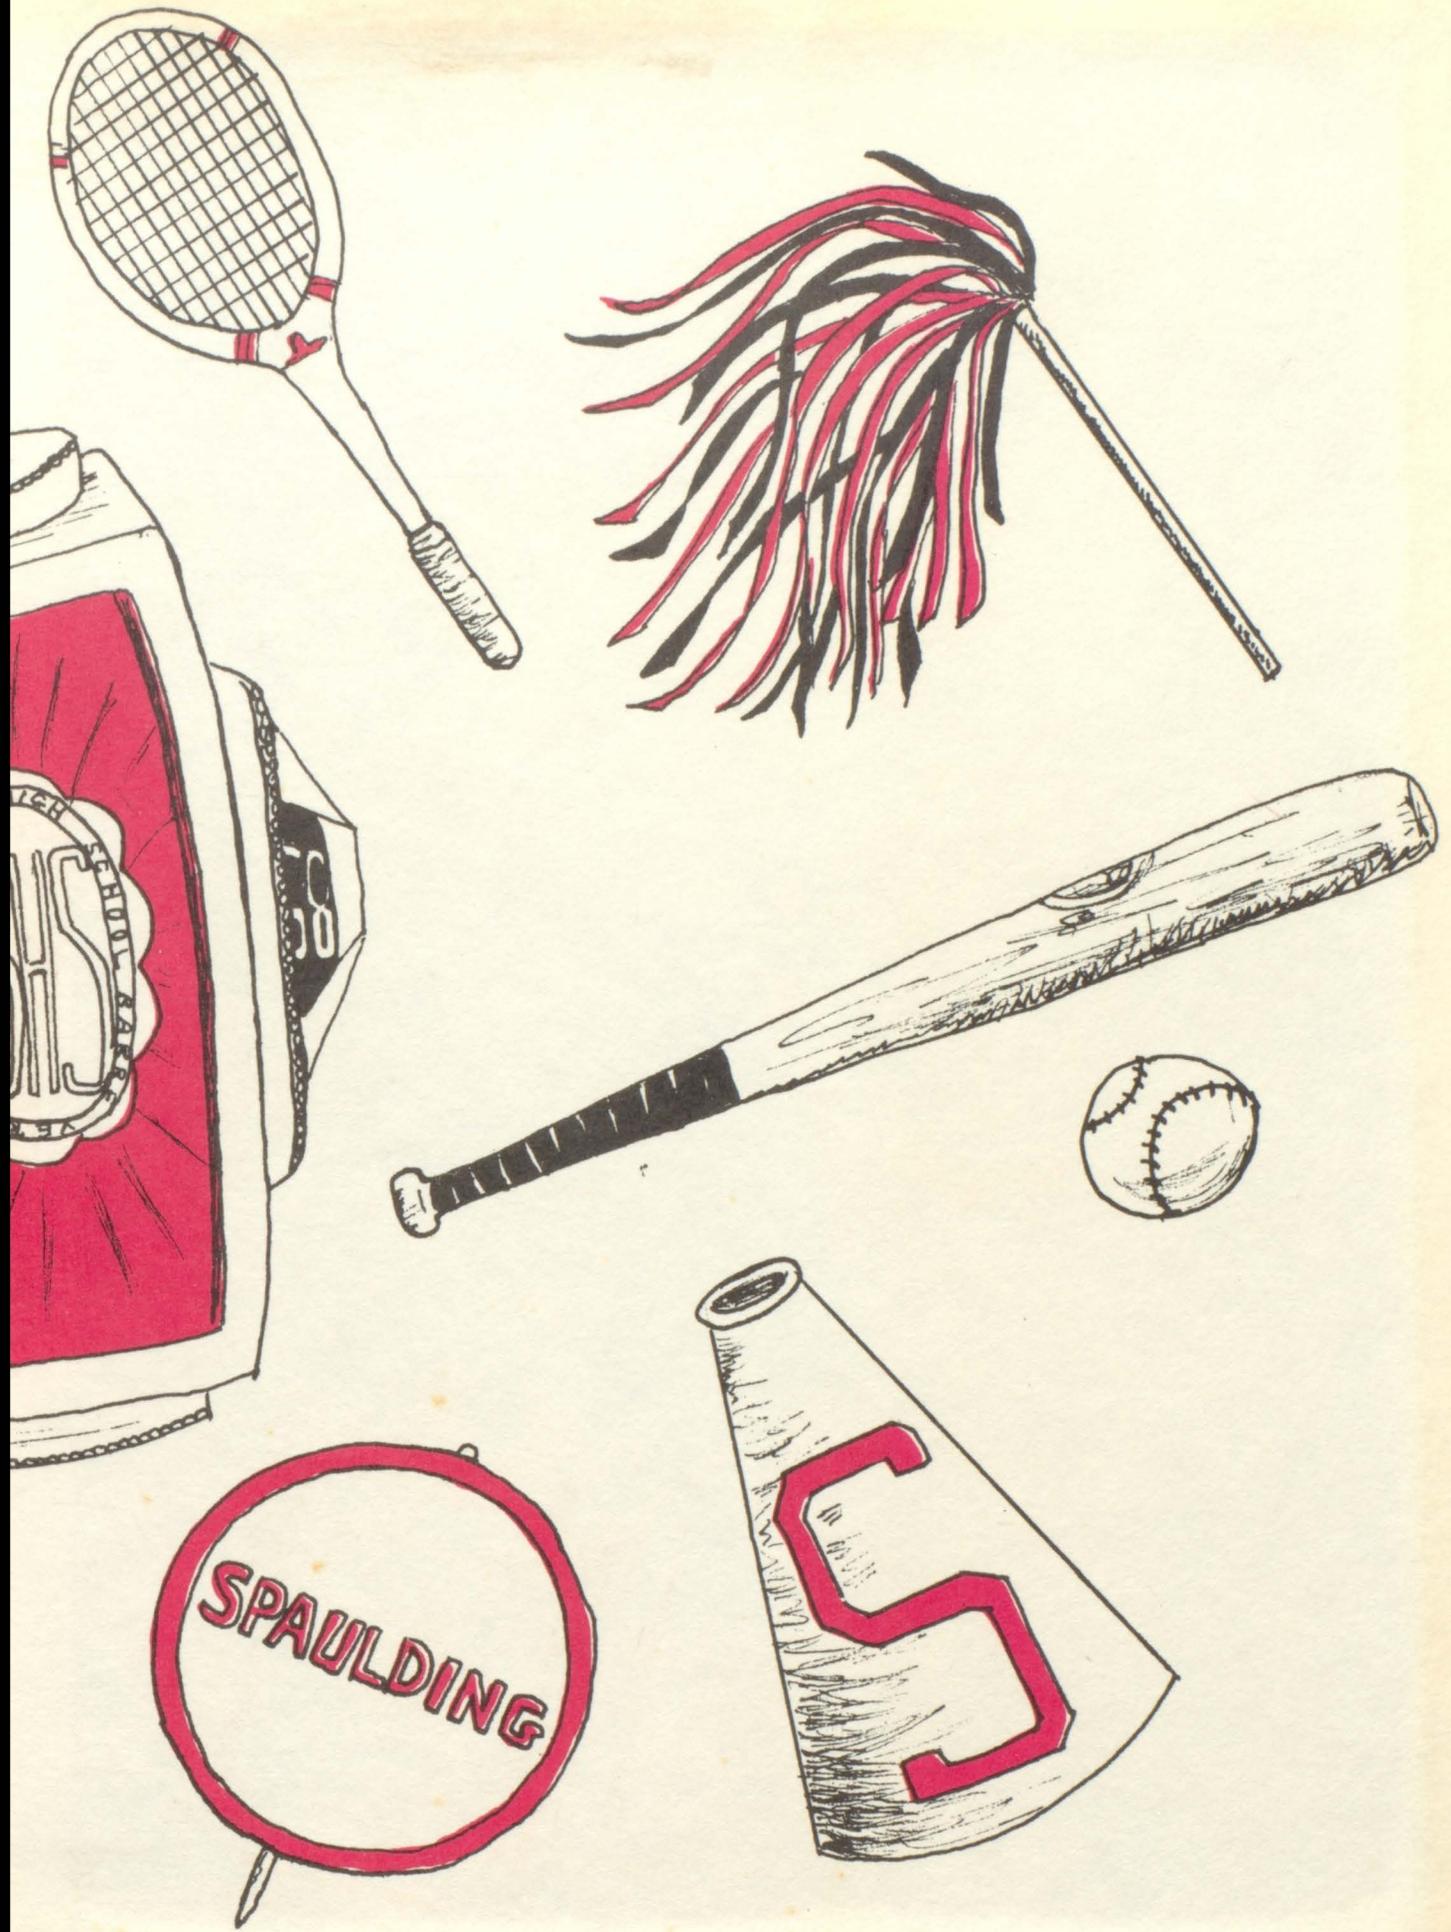

Our halls at the end of day.

As we leave our Alma Mater to find a job or to enter colleges, we take this our spirit with us. It has been taught us that we represent our school and our community, wherever we go. Always, we will remember our years at Spaulding and the spirit, which is a part of it.
