The Importance of One
I am different
Because all the words
That have happened to me
Since the day I was born
Have been added together
And the sum is Me.

— Esther Mayfield
The Importance of ONE Face

... a special smile, a concentrated lip, a quizzical eyebrow, a hungry mouth ...
The Importance of ONE Day
... the solid click of a classroom door, the smell of mimeograph ink, the crackling of a newly-opened book, the smell of pizza, waxed paper and brown lunch bags, clanging locker doors ...
The Importance of ONE Event
. . . tired feet,
a firm clasp,
growing tenseness,
hopeful apprehension,
a different cultural heritage.
One Ever Memorable Day
Let us possess one world; each hath one and is one.
