HOMECOMING

POWDER PUFF

The 5th day of November 1978 was clear and cold when the junior and senior girls of Spaulding High School met for the 3rd successive year on Pendo Field for the girls "Powder Puff" football game. Both teams had been practicing for weeks; after school, at night, and on weekends. With each passing day a feeling had been welling up inside each of the players. For the juniors, it was a crazed, inevitable feeling of victory — they lusted for it, lived for it, were sure of its arrival. The seniors, though had seen what had happened the previous year when they were juniors and had surprised everyone including themselves by blowing the overconfident seniors out of the game. This year they weren't counting on anything. They possessed a solid determination to give it all they had, to try their best to win for the 2nd year. So, as the day arrived there was no feeling of goodwill between the teams. No, one might say they may well have been "going into battle."

By the time the stands started filling, both teams had been practicing for over an hour. The juniors, in blue shirts, eyes smeared black, glared at the seniors and the seniors, dressed in red, silently glared back.

When 1:30 approached, co-captains from both teams met on the field with official, Mr. David Lamarre, in order to determine who would receive. The juniors received and the 1st quarter was off to a quick start as they were to gain yardage with the speed of Tammy Rugo. The seniors, completely surprised at the junior's aggressiveness, did not recover from their shock in time to prevent a touchdown by junior Mary Jane Wobby. The score was increased 8—0 when a 2 point conversion was made.

The 2nd quarter passed with the ball alternating between the two offenses, but although some yardage was gained, no further touchdowns were scored by either team. And so the score remained 8—0 at the end of the 1st half, in favor of the fiery-eyed juniors. During halftime the juniors with their coaches Jimmy Free and Marc Goudreau were so estatic with their lead that they invisioned an easy victory. On the other hand, lead coaches Stuart White, Roger Taplin, David Lesslie, and Richard Parnigoni were giving their senior crew a pep talk. The senior girls were concerned by the 8 point lead the juniors had taken, however, they were determined to work harder in the second half.

At the start of the second half, the seniors did indeed work as a team and scored, but the touchdown was called back because of a holding penalty. The next touchdown did count as senior Melissa Day swept the right end for long yardage resulting in a touchdown. Unable to gain the extra 2 points, the score remained 8—6, with the seniors waiting impatiently to get the ball back.

Senior quarterback Mary Jean Harris decided to try a quarterback sneak and gained a 1st down within striking distance of the goal line. With a pitch out to Melissa Day, she was off and running for her second touchdown. With good blocking by Sharon Crawford, the score was increased 14—8 when senior Mary Jean Harris ran for the extra 2 points.

In the last quarter, numerous penalties were called on both teams, including five consecutive ones on the senior front line for offsides. Though frequently penalized, the seniors again managed to score, this time using former defenseman Martina Pouliot as an offensive back. Thus, the game ended with a score of 20—8, the juniors victorious last year came on strong to win as seniors. Perhaps the class of "80" will have better luck next year — Mary Jean Harris

HIGH SCHOOL

It's always trying to act cool, not wanting to be a fool;
It's having Fran the Man, J.W. and Perk,
And it's calling the Ref a jerk.
It's having a party, a pizza, and a beer;
It's Robin always combing her hair;
It's having a great Senior year,
And the cheerleaders leading a cheer.
It's some flowers in May;
It's a play starring Melissa Day,
And an away game in St. J.
It's seeing Mr. Atkinson playing frisbee;
It's falling down and skinning your knee,
And it's losing your locker key.
It's having Mrs. Dippre and Calculus,
And it's having a Saturday night beer with Gus.
It's smoking in the bathroom,
And it's being late for homeroom.
It's having Miss Shad, Port and Smilin' Sam,
And it's causing a great big traffic jam.
It's to get a date for the Prom,
And it's taking a N.P. home to dear old Mom.
It's skipping Study Halls,
And it's reading the sayings on the bathroom walls.
It's a couple kegs for Senior Weekend,
And it's being told when to attend.
It's having a rumble,
And it's watching a freshman stumble.
And it's looking just right for Saturday night.
It's Doughnuts, the Grease and Gren.
And it's reading the Bio of good ole Ben.
It's going to the Montpelier football game,
And it's not knowing the cute girl's name,
It's always trying to score,
And it's Mr. Moore from the store.
It's almost flunking Phys. Ed.,
And it's having an accident in Driver's Ed.
It's hoping to see Mr. Blow grow,
And it's a girl that always says no.
It's a party at Finn's,
And it's taking one on the chin.
It's finally having Mr. Burdett take the microphone out of his mouth.
It's a dog named Ralph,
And it's beating a team from the South.
It's studying for a test,
It's trying to get a little rest.
It's knowing Spaulding is the best,
And it's FOXY written across your chest.
It's getting the evil eye from Miss Watson;
It's just sitting out in the sun.
It's being a good ole son-of-a-gun;
It's almost getting your homework done;
It's yelling we're number one,
But most of all, it's four years of great fun.

Craig Saia

Test Prayer

Now I lay me down to study,
I Pray the Lord I won't go nutty.
And if I fail to learn this junk,
I pray the Lord that I won't flunk.
But if I do, don't pity me at all
Just lay me bones in the study hall.
Tell my teacher I've done my best,
Then pile my books upon my chest.
Now I lay me down to rest,
to pray I'll pass tomorrow's test.
If I should die before I wake,
That's one less test I'll have to take.

For the rest of your life . . .

Summer days wasting away, as time ticks by so fast. New times to explore and to experience, adding on to the ones you already had. Friends coming and going, as the seasons come and go.
But always returning as the seasons return,
faithfully, and with new thoughts and experiences to share. Friends coming and going for the rest of your life.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

*The Spaulding Drama Club
presents the Class of 1979
in
"The Mouse That Roared"*

Rooooaarrrr! It's hard to believe that such a monumental sound could come from the tiny George Spelvin, but he gave it his all as did the entire cast of the Class of '79 Senior Play "The Mouse That Roared."

On the nights of November 20 and 21, audiences totalling more than 750 were treated to one of the most enchanting productions to ever "hit" the S.H.S. stage. The overall production ran smoothly under the direction of Mrs. Ilene Sinclair, but like every theatrical endeavor, there were a few frantic, final rehearsals where many rough edges had to be smoothed over.

Who will ever forget the tickets and programs that never came, and never came, or the disappearing swords and shields. Oh By the way, "Where were your shoes?!" T.T.? What about those "invisable" platforms in the last scene P.S. and L.B.? Despite all of the chaos, the performances were fabulous and to celebrate their success, a cast party was held at "Ed's Garage!" Regardless of the difficult directions to the party, our two "wacs" made it! "Anyone ready for another thrilling game of categories? How about a few more weights G.L.?" Overall, every one had a great time, and if given the right "incentive" may give a command performance—Senior Weekend?!

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Mrs. Constance Reilly

As usual, the Yearbook staff slowly dwindled as the year progressed; those that remained, devoted many long hours making this yearbook a success. The staff worked after school and even during vacations when Mr. Freeman would bring in "Dunkin Donuts" for us all to munch on! We owe our gratitude to Mr. Freeman for helping us through thick and thin, considering we knew very little about putting together a yearbook when we started. Working on "Our Echo" together was an experience none of us will forget. Special thanks go to Mr. Skillin for handling all the money aspects of the book. Under his guidance, students solicited financial support from local businesses; without this support "Our Echo" would not have been possible! Long live our supporters! Photographers: Bill Fraser, Lynn Blais, Karla Finnie, Cathy Keenan. Senior Editor: Betsy Allinson. Editors: Jill Beaudoin, Laura Brault, Karla Finnie, Diane Ford and Cathy Keenan.
