VERMONT HISTORY DAY 2019

Special Prizes

Architectural History Prize
Sponsored by the Preservation Trust of Vermont
The Preservation Trust of Vermont will award prizes for a superior entry focused on historic buildings, architectural history, and building technology in Vermont. The money will be distributed evenly among group members.

First Place $100 Second Place $50

Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation Prize
Sponsored by the Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation
The Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation will award $250 to a first place winner with a Superior ranking for an outstanding entry on a United States history topic. The money will be distributed evenly among group members.

The Deborah Pickman Clifford Vermont Women’s History Prize
Sponsored by the Vermont Commission on Women Education and Research Foundation
Sponsored by the Vermont Commission on Women Education and Research Foundation in special recognition of the scholarship, dedication and enthusiasm of the late Deborah Pickman Clifford, prominent Vermont historian and author specializing in women's history.

The Vermont Commission on Women Education and Research Foundation will award a $250 prize to an outstanding entry focusing on a Vermont woman who made an important contribution to the state, or the role that women played during a time in Vermont's history. The money will be distributed evenly among group members.

George F. Edmunds Memorial Prize
Sponsored by the Vermont Historical Society through the George F. Edmunds Fund
The George F. Edmunds Memorial Prize honors the work and memory of George F. Edmunds, Vermont’s senator from 1866 to 1891. A monetary prize and engraved medal are awarded to superior projects reflecting on the life and work of George F. Edmunds or relating to the history, problems, or general welfare of Vermont. Students earn recognition for finding unappreciated primary sources and for using their own interests and experiences as launching points. The money will be distributed evenly among group members. Each winner will receive an engraved medal.

First Place, Senior Division $350 Second Place, Senior Division $150 First Place, Junior Division $350 Second Place, Junior Division $150

The Horace Greeley Foundation American Freedom Award
Sponsored by The Horace Greeley Foundation
The Horace Greeley Foundation will award $50 to an outstanding entry focusing on American Freedoms, including but not limited to Abolition, Women's Rights, Women's Suffrage or Civil Rights. The money will be distributed evenly among the group members. The Horace Greeley Foundation American Freedom Award is sponsored by the Horace Greeley Foundation of Poultney, Vermont. The Horace Greeley Foundation is dedicated to preserving the sense of place and memory of Greeley's life in a small New England town, as well as the writer's trade and public oration that was central to Greeley's life.
International Studies Award
Sponsored by the Kelly Foundation

The Kelly Foundation will award prizes in recognition of the most outstanding entries that connect the National History Day annual theme to an international person or event. There will be two prizes awarded (First and Second place) in each division (Senior and Junior) with prize amounts based on the type of project (individual or group).

Senior Division

First Place  $125 (Ind) or $200 (Group)

Second Place  $75 (Ind) or $100 (Group)

Junior Division

First Place  $125 (Ind) or $200 (Group)

Second Place  $75 (Ind) or $100 (Group)

Labor History Prize
Sponsored by the Vermont Labor History Society

The Vermont Labor History Society will award $100 for an outstanding entry related to the history of working people in Vermont. The money will be distributed evenly among group members.

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender & Queer History Award
Sponsored by the Vermont LGBTQ History Project

The Vermont LGBTQ History Project will award a prize for an outstanding entry presenting research recognizing the role of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer people within Vermont history, United States history or world history. The prize for a winning individual entry will be $100; the prize for a winning group entry will be $200, with money distributed evenly among group members.

Mollie Beattie Memorial Environmental Prize
Sponsored in honor of Mollie Beattie

The Mollie Beattie Memorial Prize of $150 is awarded to an outstanding documentary, paper, exhibit or website focusing on the natural world. In addition to adhering to the annual theme, the entry could address topics including, but not limited to, preservation of wild lands, protection of fish, wildlife habitat, biodiversity, the support of threatened species, or similar aspirations that human members of the natural world strive to achieve in Mollie’s honor. The award will be distributed evenly among group members.

Mollie Beattie started her environmental stewardship career as Vermont’s Commissioner of the Vermont Division of Forests, Parks and Recreation. She later became the first woman director of the US Fish and Wildlife Service. Among her legacies is the reintroduction of the grey wolf to Yellowstone National Park.

Vermont Academy of Arts and Sciences Award
Sponsored by the Vermont Academy of Arts and Sciences

The Vermont Academy of Arts and Sciences will award two prizes of $200 to the student(s) with the best projects on the subject of art, literature, science, or technology. The award will be distributed evenly among group members.

Vermont History Award
Sponsored by the Vermont Historical Society

The Vermont History Award of $300 is presented to an entry in each age division, senior and junior, for demonstrated excellence in the use of primary sources for researching a Vermont history topic. In addition to the monetary award, the winning student(s) will receive a publication about Vermont history. The award will be distributed evenly among group members.
Vermont State Archives Award for Outstanding Use of Primary Sources
Sponsored by the Vermont State Archives and Records Administration, Secretary of State

The Vermont State Archives and Records Administration will award prizes to projects that demonstrate outstanding use of primary sources, particularly Vermont primary sources. The money will be distributed evenly among group members.

First Place $125
Second Place $75

Women’s History Award
Sponsored by Patricia Passmore Alley in memory of Helen Vrooman Passmore

The Women’s History Award is presented to the best project focusing on the contributions of a woman or women in history. The recipient of this award will receive $250. The award will be distributed evenly among group members.

Teacher Prizes

Shelburne Museum Award
Sponsored by Shelburne Museum

A teacher with a high student participation in Vermont History Day and dedication to the program will win a self-guided visit to Shelburne Museum. The winner may bring up to 50 students and 10 adults to the museum anytime during the 2019 calendar year. An advance reservation is required. Reservations can be made through the education department by contacting academic programs coordinator at (802) 985-3346 x3395, or schoolprograms@shelburnemuseum.org.

Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation Teacher Award
Sponsored by the Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation

The Coolidge Foundation offers a free History Exploration Visit for one class (up to 30 students) to the President Calvin Coolidge State Historic Site in Plymouth, Vermont. An advance reservation is required. Contact the Calvin Coolidge Presidential Foundation at (802) 672-3389 or education@calvin-coolidge.org.

2019 Hannah E. (Liz) MacGregor Teacher of the Year Award
Sponsored through National History Day

The Hannah E. (Liz) MacGregor Teacher of the Year Award recognizes two outstanding National History Day teachers from each affiliate, one in the junior division and one in the senior division. National History Day will select two national winners from the pool of nominated teachers (one in each division). These two teachers will each receive $5,000. Vermont nominees receive a certificate and a publication from the Vermont Historical Society.